Color Palette

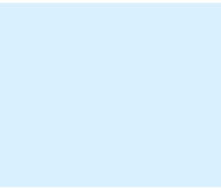

The FedRAMP visual identity relies heavily on the use of color. The palette consists of a complementary range of colors to create a vibrant and bold energy

We have adopted a strict color palette which is restricted to the colors on the right.

The goal is to produce visuals that use contrast to create visuals that are bright and engaging. To achieve this, visuals should use one predominant color and two additional colors used for accents. Try to avoid using too many dark colors together. Tints should only be used for the purposes of accents or to create a flat shadow effect.
